SC seeks reply from Centre on NEET-PG plea

Blocking seats caused meritorious candidates to lose their seats: The Plea

New Delhi: The Supreme Court on Tuesday sought replies from the Centre, National Medical Commission (NMC), and others on a plea filed by a batch of students seeking fresh counselling of all India quota (AIQ) round 3 of NEET-PG 2024.

A two-judge bench of Justices B R Gavai and K Vinod Chandran issued notices to UOI, NMC, and others, sought their respective replies, and posted the matter for further hearing on February 7. The petitioners, eligible for NEET-PG 2024 counselling, said round 3 of AIQ counselling for NEET-PG started before the second round could conclude in certain states. The plea said that when round 2 counselling opened, they had the option to choose between the best options and leave the AIQ seat if they were getting a better seat in the next round of counselling.

"This created a grave prejudice to the petitioners and similarly placed candidates since they were deprived of the seats which were blocked by the candidates from the states whose round 2 did not commence earlier," the plea said.

The petitioners alleged that the respondents' act was inconsistent with the schedule of NEET-PG counselling laid down by the apex court.

Tejashwi seeks Governor's intervention in Bihar law, order

Patna: Leader of opposition in Bihar assembly Tejashwi Prasad Yadav on Wednesday met Governor Arif Mohammad Khan at Raj Bhavan and handed over a memorandum seeking his intervention in the state's deteriorating law and order situation.

People belonging to minority communities are being targeted on one pretext or the other. The chief minister is little concerned about such happenings," he alleged. Tejashwi shared information about his meeting with the Governor on social media 'X' explaining that the memorandum contained the problems of the people across the state during the present dispensation.

Government raises tax exemption to ₹12 lakh, easing middle class burden

New Delhi: Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman on Saturday gave the middle class and the common man enough reasons to smile when she announced her personal income tax proposals.

Not only did she increase the income threshold up to which no taxes would be levied from Rs 7 lakh to Rs 12 lakh, she also changed the income tax slabs that will lead to a substantial reduction in tax burden for all taxpayers under the new tax regime. With these changes, and the standard deduction of Rs 75,000, an individual earning Rs 12.75 lakh a year will have to pay no taxes under the new tax regime.

However, if one's taxable income crosses that threshold, all the income would be taxed as per the new slabs, which are both magnanimous and generous.

The new tax slab increases the basic exemption limit from Rs 3 lakh to Rs 4 lakh, which means the first Rs 4 lakh would attract no taxes. Income from Rs 4-8 lakh would attract a rate of 5%, Rs 8-12 lakh would attract 10%.

From Rs 12,00,001 to Rs

16 lakh, there will be 15% tax and from Rs 16,00,001 to Rs 20 lakh, the tax rate would be 20%. The government has introduced a new tax slab of 25%, which would be applicable on income from Rs 20,00,001 to Rs 24 lakh. The highest tax slab of 30% kicks in only if the income crosses Rs 24 lakh per annum.

A taxpayer in the new regime with Rs 12 lakh income will save Rs 80,000 in tax (which is 100% of tax payable as per existing rates). A person earning Rs 18 lakh will get a tax benefit of Rs 70,000 (30% of tax payable as per existing rates), while a person with an income of Rs 25 lakh gets a benefit of Rs 1,10,000 (25% tax payable as per existing rates). Meanwhile, the FM also announced that the new direct tax bill will be

Congress to decide on joining Omar Abdullah govt in J&K

Party ties joining cabinet to J&K statehood restoration

Srinagar: With uncertainty looming large on Congress's alliance with ruling National Conference in Jammu Kashmir, the party high command would take a call on the party joining the Omar Abdullah-led government. At present, J&K has six cabinet ministers including Chief Minister Omar Abdullah.

Since J&K's Legislative Assembly strength is 90, there can only be nine ministers in the elected government in the Union Territory. Three cabinet berths are lying vacant in the Omar government and there are expectations that before the Budget session, the CM may go for expansion of the cabinet and fill all three vacant posts. At present J&K does not have a Finance Minister and CM Omar is himself looking after the ministry.

It remains to be seen whether the CM leaves one or two cabinet berths for its pre-poll ally, Congress. The Congress, which had contested the Assembly polls in alliance with Congress and won five seats, decided against joining the Omar government when the CM and five cabinet ministers took oath on October 16.

'We are three-member body, not run by one person': EC hits back at AAP

New Delhi: Amid allegations levelled by the Aam Aadmi Party that the Election Commission is being run by CEC Rajiv Kumar, the poll panel on Tuesday hit back saying it is a three-member body which has collectively noted "repeated deliberate pressure tactics" to malign the poll authority in Delhi polls. It said an impression is being created that the EC is a single member body. In a post on X, the EC said it has decided to have constitutional restraint, absorbing such outbursts with sagacity, stoically and not to be swayed by such insinuations.

Top AAP leaders, including its convenor Arvind Kejriwal, have claimed that the EC has been ignoring the BJP's alleged violations of poll code. Kejriwal claims Kumar avoids action against BJP for post-retirement assignment

VPP accuses Congress leader of exploiting religion for political gain

Shillong: The Voice of the People Party (VPP) has hit back at Meghalaya Congress leader Ronnie V Lyngdoh, accusing him of repeatedly bringing religion into politics. VPP spokesperson Batskhem Myrboh claimed that Lyngdoh is "playing the religious card" in his own constituency, Myllem.

Myrboh's remarks came in response to Lyngdoh's accusations that the VPP was using religion in politics. The VPP spokesperson denied these allegations, suggesting that Lyngdoh's own actions were motivated by a desire to exploit religious sentiments for political gain.

In a separate allegation, Lyngdoh had claimed that VPP's Myllem candidate, Aibandaplin Lyngdoh Nonglait, had misled voters by falsely claiming to have completed her education in Theology during the 2023 Assembly election. Myrboh dismissed this claim, pointing out that Nonglait had not mentioned the qualification in her affidavit, but this did not necessarily mean she was lying. The VPP has challenged Lyngdoh to conduct his own investigation into the matter, saying, "Let Ronnie conduct his private investigation and complete whatever process he deems necessary."

He detailed actions taken following an incident near the Dehing Patkai National Park (then wildlife sanctuary) in Assam's Tinsukia district, including a suo motu case by the National Green Tribunal (NGT). The tribunal's judgment directed the Tinsukia Deputy Commissioner to secure the mines and prevent further rat-hole mining.

Separate electoral roll for non-tribals in GHADC deemed "legally untenable"

Shillong: A recent demand by the Sarvadaliya Sammelan, a minority body, for a separate electoral roll for non-tribals in the Garo Hills Autonomous District Council (GHADC), Meghalaya has been met with strong opposition.

Social activist Cherian Momin termed the demand as a blatant attempt to subvert the constitutional safeguards provided under the Sixth Schedule of the Constitution towards the Scheduled Tribes.

Momin stated that the GHADC is a constitutionally mandated autonomous institution, established to ensure self-governance and self-determination for the indigenous Garo people. He added that any effort to restructure its electoral framework in favour of non-tribals would be an assault on the constitutional sovereignty of Scheduled Tribes. The exclusion of non-tribals from the electoral rolls of GHADC, Momin pointed out, is not an act of discrimination but a protective mechanism to prevent the political marginalization of indigenous communities. He urged constitutional authorities, policymakers, and the judiciary to prevent any move that threatens the sanctity of the Sixth

Northeast sees surge in Oesophageal cancer, calls grow for advanced medical investments

Guwahati: The rising incidence of oesophageal cancer in Northeast India is fueling demand for advanced medical technologies and investment in specialized healthcare. According to a recent Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR) report, tobacco consumption—48.2% among adults in the region compared to the national average of 29%—is a key driver behind this alarming trend. Assam is at the epicenter of the crisis, with Dibrugarh reporting the highest proportion of cases at 15.7% (1 in 54 males), followed by Kamrup Urban at 14.3% (1 in 27 males) and Cachar at 11.6% (1 in 53 males).

Due to the limited availability of high-end medical facilities, patients from the Northeast often seek treatment in other parts of the country. Leading oncologists, including Dr. Sunder Kumar Dabas and Dr. Bikram Kumar Deka, emphasize the need for investments in robotic-assisted surgery. Dr. Deka, Consultant - Surgical Oncology & Robotic Surgery at Max Hospitals, highlighted the gaps in medical infrastructure. "Key diagnostic tools like PET scans remain inaccessible in many areas, and robotic-assisted surgery is underutilized," he noted. Dr. Dabas, Vice Chairman & HOD - Surgical Oncology at Max Hospitals, advocates for adopting minimally invasive surgical techniques to enhance patient outcomes.

"Traditional oesophageal surgeries carry high risks. Robotic-assisted procedures improve precision, reduce complications, and ensure faster recovery, allowing quicker access to follow-up treatments like chemotherapy and radiotherapy," he explained. Guwahati, as the region's primary healthcare and business hub, is witnessing a shift in healthcare investments.

Private hospitals are exploring partnerships to introduce advanced cancer treatment facilities, including robotic-assisted surgeries. With rising demand, stakeholders are pushing for strategic investments to curb medical outflow and enhance local healthcare infrastructure.

Gold demand rises 1% in 2024, economic uncertainty to provide support: WGC

New Delhi: Global gold demand including over-the-counter (OTC) trading rose by 1 per cent to a record high of 4,974.5 metric tonnes in 2024 as investment increased, the World Gold Council (WGC) said on Wednesday, adding that central banks sped up buying in the fourth quarter.

Spot gold prices rose by 27 per cent last year, the most since 2010, as investors chose the metal to hedge against global risks and as the US Federal Reserve slashed interest rates. Prices hit another all-time high on Tuesday, driven by safe-haven demand after China retaliated with tariffs on the United States in response to President Donald Trump's trade levies.

Central banks, a major source of gold demand, bought more than 1,000 tonnes of the metal for the third year in a row in 2024. The National Bank of Poland was the largest such buyer, adding 90 tonnes to its reserves, the WGC, an industry body whose members are global gold miners, said in a quarterly report.

In the final quarter of 2024, when Trump won the US election, buying by central banks accelerated by 54 per cent year on year to 333 tonnes, the WGC calculated, based on reported purchases and an estimate of unreported buying.

Atlantia Electricals files IPO papers with Sebi, aims to raise Rs 400 cr

Mumbai: Atlanta Electricals Ltd, manufacturer of power, auto and inverter duty transformers, has filed preliminary papers with capital markets regulator Sebi seeking its approval to raise funds through an initial public offering (IPO).

The Gujarat-based company's IPO is a combination of a fresh issue of equity shares worth Rs 400 crore and an offer for sale (OFS) of 38.1 lakh equity shares by a promoter and other selling shareholders, according to the draft red herring prospectus (DRHP) filed on Tuesday. The offer includes a reservation of equity shares for subscription by eligible employees.

Besides, the company may consider raising Rs 80 crore in a pre-IPO placement round. If such placement is undertaken, the size of the fresh issue will be reduced.

The company proposes to utilize the proceeds from the issue for payment of debt, supporting working capital requirements of the company and for general corporate purposes. According to a Crisil report, India's transformer market is driven by the relentless growth in electricity demand, with per capita consumption surging by over 50 per cent in the last decade. Also, the government is investing in the renewable energy sector and expanding the power transmission network, which will create opportunities for the transformer market's growth.

SEBI announces new 'algo trading' rules

Mumbai: The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) has mandated stock exchanges to empanel algorithmic trading providers and has also defined rules for using application programming interfaces (APIs), according to a Business Standard report.

Algorithmic trading, also known as algo trading, is a method of executing trading orders by providing a predefined set of rules to a computer program.

This helps in placing share orders at a speed and frequency not possible for human traders.

Algo trading is already prevalent in India among both institutional as well as retail investors. However, existing regulations had several loopholes, posing risks to investors, according to a Business Standard report.

As a result, The Brokers' Industry Standards Forum will formulate algo trading standards before April 1, 2025, and they will become effective from August 1.

The new guardrails will be implemented through the exchanges. This also includes criteria for empanelment.

Brokers will thus, only be able to onboard algo trading providers that are empaneled with the exchanges. Apart from this, they also have to obtain exchange approval, address grievances and even monitor prohibited activities.

RBI meeting kicks off; markets await rate decision

Mumbai: The Reserve Bank of India's (RBI) Monetary Policy Committee (MPC) meeting begins on Wednesday under the leadership of newly appointed Governor Sanjay Malhotra. This will be the first policy meeting of Sanjay Malhotra as RBI Governor.

Analysts are divided on whether the RBI will cut the repo rate for the first time in nearly two years or maintain the current rate to manage inflation and currency stability.

The six-member committee will announce its decision on February 7, 2025. Experts believe the RBI may reduce the repo rate by 25 basis points (bps) to support economic growth, especially after the Union Budget 2025 focused on boosting demand.

The repo rate has been unchanged at 6.5%

since February 2023, and the last rate cut was announced during the Covid-19 pandemic in May 2020.

adan Sabnavis, Chief Economist at Bank of Baroda, believes economic conditions are suitable for a rate cut. "The budget has provided a growth stimulus, and inflation is expected to ease.

However, the rupee remains under pressure due to global trade uncertainties," he said. While some believe a rate cut is likely, others feel the RBI may wait for global economic conditions to stabilise before making any changes.

Arsenal's 5-1 demolition of Man City sends warning

London: Arsenal beat Manchester City 5-1 to keep their Premier League title hopes alive on Sunday, while Manchester United slumped to another meek 2-0 home defeat to Crystal Palace.

In the battle between the sides that have finished in the top for the past two seasons, the Gunners prevailed to move within six points of leaders Liverpool, who have a game in hand. Arsenal were gifted the perfect start inside two minutes as Manuel Akanji lost possession and Kai Havertz squared for Martin Odegaard to open the scoring. Havertz exposed Arsenal's lack of a clinical goalscorer when he wasted a glorious chance to double the lead.

In response, England lost Ben Duckett early to Mohammed Shami. But as it has been the case, spinners led to the visitors downfall.
